INTRODUCTION

The Daily Prayer Project (DPP) is a daily prayerbook for the people of God that covers every season of the Christian Year with robust, rooted, and cross-cultural liturgies for prayer and scripture reading through seven editions per year. It is a model of prayer that emphasizes the communal, global, and historic practice of prayer, which fuels and forms our individual expressions of prayer in the present season of our lives.

The project is an entrance into the holy, unifying, and empowering experience of praying together in a common way throughout the Christian Year, knowing that all of us participate with the global and historic family of faith as we learn, together, to pray without ceasing.

Consider establishing rhythms of prayer in your congregation, household, workplace, small groups, or other gatherings so that you might experience the formative reality of common prayer together. If doing this liturgy individually, you are encouraged to take your time to soak it in. If doing this as a group, it may be best to alternate leading each element: one person says the psalm, the next person says the reading, the next person says a refrain, etc. Consider using different postures in prayer (like standing, kneeling, lifted or open hands, etc.) that fit your context.

THE METHODS AND ELEMENTS

Please note: The season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, so start using this volume on page 12.

Each day of the books feature morning and evening prayer liturgies that are framed by common elements. Everyone's style of praying is different because every person is different. Beyond that, Christian prayer varies widely across cultures and denominations. No one method can capture that. However, we hope that you will find within the DPP a method that gives enough structure and freedom to facilitate a diverse community of prayer. Every element is offered as a suggestion of guidance, not as a binding rule.

- THE CALL: Every liturgy of the Daily Prayer Project begins with a call to prayer from the scriptures. This is the shape of Christian prayer: the Father, Son, and Spirit beckons us by a call, and we respond.
- THE PSALM: The Psalms form the core language of prayer for people of God and have done so for thousands of years. In the DPP, we are given the same daily Psalm to pray at both morning and evening, allowing for more repetition and deeper meditation in prayer. We pray through all of the Psalms more than two times per year.
- SILENCE OR SONG: We live in a loud world, internally and externally. Silence is a counter-cultural act of resistance. This is also a time for singing.
- SCRIPTURE READINGS: The scriptures give us The Story of the Father's redemption of all things in the Son by the power of the Holy Spirit. The Daily Prayer Project follows the Sunday (and certain Holy Day) readings of the Revised Common Lectionary, the largest shared Bible-reading plan in North America. For most Monday-Saturdays, it follows our own Daily Prayer Project Lectionary, which moves through scripture in a slow, three-year cycle.
- REFRAINS, CREEDS AND SONGS: These are expressions of faith and adoration that remind us what we believe as Christians and move us to praise God in unity with the Church global and historic.
- CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE: This is a time for us to examine our lives, confess our sins, and receive anew God's love for us. There are three times of confession a week: Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday.
- PRAYERS: There will be a variety of prayers throughout the seasons of the Project taken from traditional prayers (such as the Lord's Prayer, the Gloria Patri, the Agnus Dei, etc.) to more modern and meditative prayers from all over the globe. There is also a section called Prompted Prayers, which move us to pray for all people in all stations of life.

- ABIDING: This element is modeled after the ancient form of Christian prayer called lectio divina, Latin for “divine reading.” This is a form of prayer with four steps: read, meditate, pray, contemplate. The heart of the practice is to let the scriptures be the means through which we encounter and behold God.
- THE BENEDICTION: We close our day with a word of love and blessing over our lives from God himself, the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. Our days are framed by the Call and the Benediction; God has the first and the last word over all things in our lives.

ABOUT THE SEASON OF LENT

Lent is the third season of the Christian Year. It is the season of preparation for the unparalleled, joyful feast of Easter. During these forty days, we turn the eyes of our hearts towards the Suffering Servant and the journey towards his Passion and sacrificial death. We turn our very selves ever more towards the downward and upward journey of dying to sin and rising again, waking up evermore to the new life of love available for us in the Risen Christ and his Body, the Church.

The Church has long used Lent as a time to intensify the regular practices of the faith: repentance, prayer, fasting, generosity, and acts of love for others. Lent is like an “annual physical exam” for our lives in Christ, where we ask questions like: What patterns of sin have ingrained themselves into my life and how can I pray and work to change these patterns? How has my love of God and neighbor grown cold and selfish? Where have I filled my life with the things of creation in a way that does not honor my Creator and my fellow image bearers? What does the death and resurrection of Jesus mean for my life?

Take some time during this season to more deeply ingrain the core practices of the faith into the rhythms of your days: maintain morning and evening prayer; confess your sins to others; practice fasting (whole days and/or certain meals) with a joyful spirit (Matthew 6:16-18) as a way to embody the reality that we do not live by bread alone “but by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD” (Deuteronomy 8:3); give your money away; and take the form of a servant, “washing the feet” of others like our Chief Servant and Lord (Mark 10:45).

During this season, we will be reading together mainly from the books of Deuteronomy, Lamentations, and the Gospel of Luke (in addition to our daily Psalm). There will be additional readings for Sundays and Holy Days from the Revised Common Lectionary.

RESOURCES AND PRACTICES

All of the seasons of the Christian Year are accompanied by curated resources and practices that are accessible at our website: www.dailyprayerproject.com.

SEASONAL ARTWORK

"Golden Light in the Storm" by Megan Jefferson.

Oil on canvas

Megan Jefferson is an Indianapolis painter and has been actively creating work ever since receiving her BFA from Miami University in 1998. She has exhibited extensively, regionally and sells her work to designers and individual patrons.

Megan's work shifts in theme depending on the series. She loves to create pieces that have a focus on color-based abstraction. This fascination and innate personal connection to color is present in both her past and present work. She describes the process of her work in this way: "I let the process define the artwork and describe my working process as a dance and conversation. I place down some color, and as certain areas and shapes evolve I will "answer" those happenings with additive or subtractive methods. This dance continues until each painting feels right. The result is thoughtful, intuitive, spontaneous and reflective."

See more of Megan's work at www.jeffersonartstudio.com.

DPP Gallery Note: "A journey, a pilgrimage! Yet, as we begin it, as we make the first step into the 'bright sadness' of Lent, we see far, far away-the destination. It is the joy of Easter, it is the entrance into the glory of the Kingdom." (Alexander Schmemmann, The Great Lent: Journey to Pascha).

As we meditated on both the journey and "bright sadness" of Lent, we were immediately struck when we first saw Megan Jefferson's Golden Light In The Storm, which exhibited both the gray ashes of the beginning of the Lenten season and the long journey towards the golden glory of Easter. We were thrilled to support the work of the Harrison Center (harrisoncenter.org) in Indianapolis, IN by supporting the work of one of their artists.

If you are a visual artist interested in displaying your work through the Daily Prayer Project, please fill out the form in The Gallery section of our website or email us at team@dailyprayerproject.com.

CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE

C: All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God.

The hatred which divides nation from nation, race from race, class from class, Father Forgive

The covetous desires of people and nations to possess what is not their own, Father Forgive

The greed which exploits the work of human hands and lays waste the earth, Father Forgive

Our envy of the welfare and happiness of others, Father Forgive

Our indifference to the plight of the imprisoned, the homeless, the refugee, Father Forgive

The lust which dishonors the bodies of men, women and children, Father Forgive

The pride which leads us to trust in ourselves and not in God, Father Forgive

Be kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

(The Coventry Litany of Reconciliation by Canon Joseph Poole. Written in 1958 in Coventry, England)

[Let this prayer search you out. Freely confess in grace and in truth.]

A: But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God. I trust in the steadfast love of God forever and ever. I will thank you forever, because you have done it. I will wait for your name, for it is good, in the presence of the godly.

HYMN

Manos cariñosas, manos de Jesús, manos que llevaron la pesada cruz.
Manos que supieron sólo hacer el bien,
¡Gloria a esas manos! ¡Aleluya amén!

Manos que supieron calmar el dolor,
¡Oh manos divinas de mi Redentor!
Que multiplicaron los peces y el pan,
manos milagrosas que la vida dan.

Manos que sufrieron el clavo y la cruz;
Manos redentoras de mi buen Jesús.
De esas manos bellas yo confiado estoy,
ellas van guiando, pues al cielo voy.

¡Oh Jesús tus manos yo las ví en visión
y vertí mi llanto con el corazón;
Ví sus dos heridas y la sangre ví que tú derramaste por salvarme a mí.

(Manos cariñosas by Alfredo Colom, a Guatemalan songwriter who lived from 1904-1971.

Bleeding hands of Jesus, crucified for me,
On a cross so heavy, nailed upon a tree,
Showing only goodness, to both foe and friend,
Glory, alleluia to those hands, Amen.

Hands whose tender touch gave solace and relief,
Holy hands of Jesus, soothing pain and grief,
Feeding hungry people, breaking fish and bread,
Working signs and wonders, raising from the dead.

Hands that bore the anguish of the brutal nails,
Hands that bought redemption, love that never fails,
Those sure hands will guide me, lest I go astray,
Pointing me to heaven on the pilgrim way.

In a blessed vision, Lord, your hands I saw,
As my weeping spirit filled with love and awe,
Seeing wounds you suffered, nailed upon the tree,
And your blood so precious, shed in saving me.

THE PRAYER OF EXAMEN

The prayer of examen comes from the Spiritual Exercises passed down by St. Ignatius of Loyola, a Spanish Monk who lived from 1491-1556. Below is a version of the five-step Daily Examen that St. Ignatius practiced. Pray through this slowly, giving time to each step of the practice.

1. Become aware of God's presence.
2. Review the day with gratitude.
3. Pay attention to your emotions.
4. Choose one feature of the day and pray from it.
5. Look toward tomorrow.

PRAYER

O Lord, O God, creator of our land, our earth, the trees, the animals and humans, all is for your honor.
The drums beat it out, and people sing about it, and they dance with noisy joy that you are the Lord.
You also have pulled the other continents out of the sea.
What a wonderful world you have made out of wet mud,
and what beautiful men and women!
We thank you for all the beauty of this earth.
The grace of your creation is like a cool day between rainy seasons.
We drink in your creation with our eyes.
We listen to the birds' jubilee with our ears.
How strong and good and sure your earth smells, and everything that grows there.
Bless us. Bless our land and people.

Give me yourself, O my God, give yourself to me.
Behold I love you, and if my love is too weak a thing,

both brighter and purer, to find You within me.
(St. Teresa of Ávila, a Spanish Nun who lived from 1515-1582)

THE CALL

Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

(Psalm 124:8)

OLD TESTAMENT READING

THE CREED

We believe, God, that you made the earth, the sky, the sea. Everything that is in them, it all belongs to you.

We believe that you became human in the womb of Mary, a village woman, a poor woman, a virgin dedicated to God. You give people new dignity and value, restoring in us the image in which we were made by God.

We believe you are life and light, truly God and truly human. You reveal the Father who loves and cares for us. When the powerful killed you, you remained with us, and you live now forever bearing oppression's weight.

We believe you are transforming this death-dealing world through the Holy Spirit, who is God's love and power. You live raised from death, and are present in the fight in which we build your kingdom of justice, peace, and love.

(The Credo from The Mass of the Marginalized People, written in Honduras, 1980)

THE LORD'S PRAYER

+ EVENING PRAYER +

THE PSALM

SILENCE OR SONG

CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE

C: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

(The Agnus Dei)

A: Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Let us therefore celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

(adapted from 1 Corinthians 5:7-8)

NEW TESTAMENT READING

1. Become aware of God's presence.
2. Review this past week with gratitude.
3. Pay attention to your emotions.
4. Choose one feature from the week and pray from it.
5. Look toward tomorrow and the beginning of a new week.

A PRAYER FOR SABBATH

Creator God,

On the seventh day you rested and were refreshed.

Please help me now to enter into the rest of your Sabbath,

That I may cease from my work

And delight in your care over my life

Both now and forever,

Amen.

THE BENEDICTION

Lord, you now have set your servants free to go in peace as you have promised, for these eyes of ours have seen the savior, whom you have prepared for all the world to see: A Light to enlighten the nations, and the glory of your people Israel. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

(Nunc Dimittis - The Song of Simeon, based on Luke 2:29-32)
